

Printed from

THE TIMES OF INDIA

Conference on road culture, civic sense

TNN | Jul 12, 2012, 02:57 AM IST

Movement for Roads in Goa (MARG) will organize a day-long conference, 'Challenge 1', on July 14 at Ravindra Bhavan, Margao. Addressing mediapersons on Wednesday, MARG convener Gurunath Kelekar and event coordinator Prabhakhar Timble said the conference was being held 'to explore the ways for inculcating the values of road culture, civic sense and citizenship'. Around 200 volunteers, along with programme coordinators of the National Service Scheme from 16 colleges and higher secondary schools of South Goa are expected to participate in the conference. State transport director Arun Dessai, director of sports and youth affairs V M Desai, educationist V M Desai, former speaker of Goa assembly Dilip Prabu Desai and activist Auda Viegas will also be present during the conference. Kelekar said that another conference on similar lines would be organized in North Goa in August.

Indian classical music recital: Sesa Goa and Snk Events will present 'Sesa Baithak', a Indian classical music recital by Ritesh and Rajnish Mishra on July 14, at 6pm, at museum hall, Patto-Panaji. Entry is free.

Reiki course: A Reiki 'Part I' course will be conducted by Reiki Vidya Niketan Devrukh, Ratnagiri, on July 14 and 15 at Siddh Datta Mandir Chaitan Hall, Davorlim-Margao, under the guidance of Ajit Telang. For details and registration call on 9325376474 or 738097075.

CME programme in pulmonary pathology:

The department of pathology, Goa Medical College (GMC), Bambolim, in collaboration with the Indian Academy of Cytologists, will organize a continuing medical education (CME) programme in pulmonary pathology on July 17 at 3pm in the pathology department's seminar room. The CME will be chaired by Dr R G Wiseman Pinto and the faculty includes Dr Pradeep Vaideeswar - professor, department of pathology and head of the cardiovascular

Printed from

THE TIMES OF INDIA

Goa Management Association's knowledge series lecture

TNN | May 29, 2013, 01:13 AM IST

The Goa Management Association (GMA) will organize a lecture on May 30 at Kulaghar, Goa Marriott Resort, Miramar, from 5.45pm to 7pm. D Shivakumar, president, All India Management Association and senior vice-president, Nokia (India, Middle East and Africa), will be the guest speaker. Shivakumar will speak on the topic 'Innovation for corporate renaissance'. For details and registration contact the GMA office on 2411538 or email at gmagoa@gmail.com.

Saxophonist M'tafiti Imara at Anjuna: American saxophone virtuoso M'tafiti Imara will perform with jazz band Jazz Junction at Spazio Resort's poolside promenade, Anjuna, on May 29 from 8pm onwards. For details call on 9823240552.

Arthur Fernandes' Drum Circle at ICG: Pune-based psychologist and arts based therapist Arthur Fernandes will conduct a Drum Circle on May 30, from 4pm to 7pm, at the The International Centre, Dona Paula. Fernandes, who is also a musician and singer, will deliver a talk on 'motivation, handling emotions and thinking out of box' before conducting the Drum Circle. For details contact Vividha Sawant on 2452805-10 (ext. 605) or email at pro@incentgoa.com.

Investor depository meet in Margao: The National Securities Depository Limited (NSDL) will conduct a free investor depository meet (IDM) on May 31 at Hotel Woodlands, Margao, at 5pm. The seminar aims at spreading awareness about the depository processes and the safety and benefits of depository system.

Seminar on reiki: A seminar on reiki will be conducted by Reiki Vidya Niketan, Devrukh, Ratnagiri, at Siddh Datta